Troop Treasurer

- Treasurer's report.
 - Current balance $1,622.11
 - The troop Camporee fee is $195.00
- Dues
 - Invoices for the 21-22 school year have been distributed and sent out. Dues payments are being received.
 - Since the Charter fees have been increased AGAIN, it will now be almost 90 for a scout and 50 for an adult. The committee discussed asking the adult volunteers on the charter to pay their own dues. After the discussion a motion was made by Bob McGuire, seconded by Brian Maggi, to ask the adults to pay their own dues for this year only to help defer the troop costs while fundraising restarts this year. The motion passed unanimously. Invoices to be sent out for $50 to all troop registered adults.

Fundraising

- Bake Sale? Registrar will not allow the bake sale.
 - RW suggested a bake sale at the rec center? Discuss but thought the draw would be low.
 - A Scout fair with multiple troops at The Community Center was discussed to sell Holiday items. Troop would sell Poinsettias and bank goods. RW will contact Ron to see if we can schedule a date. Tristan & Geri will talk with other troops/packs to participate.
- Brian will contact Oronoque about doing pies again this year.
 - Brian ordered 50 tickets, Cost will be $18, each scout with 5 tickets.
 - Brian will also check with some companies / retailers about donating prizes.

- Pancake Breakfast has been tentatively scheduled
 - Presume it will go forward as well. Karen M. Will chair the event. Thank you!

 - No real discussion, something to think about for next month's meeting
